

COLD BRINGS MORE SUFFERING IN WAKE OF THE SNOW AND WIND STORM

Colder Temperatures Predicted for Today with Rising Mercury Tomorrow

TRAFFIC IS PARALYZED

Snow that Sweeps Central States Sunday and Monday Paralyzes All Traffic.

MANY TRAINS ARE STALLED

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Colder temperature today brought more suffering in the wake of the severe wind and snow storm that paralyzed traffic in the middle west Sunday. All trains, except those from the north tonight were reported from three hours to more than a day late. The Washburn railroad announced that three trains from St. Louis had been cancelled and that until the wind stops piling snow upon the tracks, no trains can be put through. One Santa Fe train from California appeared for a time to be lost. This it was said, was due not to the storm in the west, but to the floods which prevented trains from getting out of California. Asked about the train due from the Pacific Coast today, officials finally said it might reach here Thursday. Later it was announced that the train left Los Angeles today.

The thermometer here registered from 12 to 16 degrees and a wind velocity of 38 miles an hour. Tomorrow will be cold, according to the weather bureau and Wednesday the temperature is expected to rise. More than thousand applications for fuel were filed by the county agent and nearly as many more applicants for food were satisfied. Eighteen men were lodged in the municipal lodging house tonight.

Zero Weather Coming.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 23.—A mercury dip to zero weather is coming upon the heels of the snow storm that has prevailed over Kansas and Western Missouri during the last thirty-six hours. This prediction was made by the local weather bureau tonight. At 7 o'clock tonight more than eight inches of snow had fallen in Kansas City and the air was full of swirling flakes. Reports from Kansas said the worst storm of the winter prevailed. From five to eight inches of snow covered the state and temperature were dropping rapidly.

Many Trains Stalled.

Columbus, O., Feb. 23.—Trains are stalled at numerous points throughout the state, traffic abandoned in some instances, train arrivals ranging from three to seven hours late and street car and interurban traffic seriously impeded, where trolley traffic had not been abandoned. More some of the results of the most severe snow storm that has swept this state this winter. The storm broke generally over the state Sunday afternoon and has raged continuously since. Eight inches of snow had been added since Sunday afternoon to the supply, which already covered the ground, making a total at many points of from twelve to twenty inches.

Five Hurt at Accur.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 23.—Five persons were injured when the Washburn Continental Limited ran into three engines here today. The engineer, blinded by the snow, did not see the engines until too late to stop.

High Winds Stop Trains.

Denison, Tex., Feb. 23.—Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway trains were compelled to stop between St. Louis and Parsons, Kan., today because of high winds. Windows in the trains were blown out and passengers suffered from the cold.

Indiana Is Storm Bound.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 23.—Indianapolis and practically all of Indiana are storm bound tonight. The street car service here is demoralized. No attempt was made to operate cars on several of the lines.

Throughout the city, the snow, which began falling Sunday morning at a velocity of sixty miles an hour and lies in drifts from three to five feet deep. The snow continued to fall tonight and the weather bureau held out little hope for immediate relief.

Clearing in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 23.—Continued fair weather aided work today in restoring service on railroads and wires put out of commission by the storm of the past week. Communication with the east by rail is expected to be restored late today. Passengers of the eastbound California Limited and Phoenix Express, mooned Friday night in the mountains at Summit, 25 miles east of San Bernardino, were reached today with provisions. The Chicago American League team was expected to reach Los Angeles late today.

The three days storm, considered the worst in Southern California's history, has stopped practically all trains, crippled telephone and telegraph service and halted the movement of the rails. Railroad tracks, bridges, roads, orchards and houses have been swept away in places. The damage is estimated at $4,500,000.

Passenger Trains Stalled.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—Hundreds of passengers on trains in Central Illinois are tonight being cared for in farm houses and village hotels while section gangs and crews of rescue engines armed with snow shovels are trying to dig trains out of snow drifts some of which are twenty feet deep. So severe was the blizzard all day and so relentless the wind that the snow filled in as fast as it could be shoveled. So desperate became the situation on some roads that operations were abandoned until tomorrow and all attention given to caring for the passengers.

The Baltimore & Ohio has not had a train into Springfield since last night. The Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis is having almost equal trouble. Washburn trains were stalled on both ends of this division and Chicago & Alton and Illinois Central main lines trains, while running, are many hours late.

The Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis has a train with 25 passengers stalled at Virginia and one at Cantrall with thirty-five passengers. Farmers are tonight housing these passengers.

Peoria Division Chicago & Alton Trains Have Been Annulled.

One train is snowed under at Green Valley. Five engines pulled the Illinois Central "Daylight Special" out of a drift at Diverson. The Baltimore & Ohio has passenger trains stalled at Sharpsburg, Owanesco and Virginia. The Owanesco train left its passengers at Pana. Passengers of other trains are being housed by farmers.

Three Washburn passenger trains are in drifts near Markham with four extra engines and squads of men trying to dig them out.

Interurban cars of the Illinois Traction System are held by drifts in several directions out of Springfield. Volunteer relief has been offered by farmers who send word that all passengers are being made comfortable.

Business here is paralyzed, street car traffic almost stopped, schools closed and there has been much suffering among the poor as the blizzard is marked by low temperatures. Undertakers today abandoned all funerals. Late this afternoon the blizzard abated and the snow ceased, but tonight interfered with the rescue work on the railroads.

Predicts Drop in Temperature.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—Missouri and Illinois tonight experienced the crisis of the cold wave and storm which are sweeping across the central portion of the United States. The local United States weather bureau predicted the temperature would drop to zero by morning on either side of the Mississippi river.

Railroad, interurban and street car traffic in both states was on the verge of demoralization today with a minimum local temperature of 13 degrees and a snow fall of only five and a half inches. Complete abolition of schedules between St. Louis and Chicago may be expected tomorrow according to local railway officials.

Three Trains between St. Louis and Chicago were discontinued and all other trains inbound were from one to eight hours late. In St. Louis and neighboring towns street car traffic was at a standstill for hours at a time. Springfield, Mo., and Cairo, Ill., alike were in the grip of the storm.

Storm Sweeps Tennessee.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Much reduced in intensity the storm which swept over Tennessee today bringing wind driven storm to the east tonight had veered southeast concentrating itself over eastern Georgia and western North Carolina. By tomorrow weather bureau experts said the disturbance will have passed out to sea. Falling temperatures will mark its departure along the Atlantic coast district, through Pennsylvania and the Ohio Valley and southward to Texas. Heavy snows were reported tonight in the Ohio Valley and western West Virginia. Light snows from Southern Pennsylvania to the Virginia-North Carolina border line.

In the Northwest the thermometers were reported rising tonight and in the next several days they are expected to mount gradually higher.

Many Injured on Interurban.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—H. M. Craig, a traveling salesman of Rock Island, was seriously hurt, five were bruised and fifteen other passengers aboard an interurban sleeper on the Illinois Traction System escaped injury tonight when a relief car ran into the sleeper, which was stalled in the snow in a subway five miles south of the city. The passengers had been without food, and the relief car was sent in an effort to break the blockade.

Craig was brought to this city and taken to St. John's Hospital.

The injured are: Mrs. W. A. Fitzsimmons, actress, (5609 Green street), Chicago, slight injury to back of head.

H. W. Craig, Rock Island, several ribs fractured.

L. W. Downs, 531 Main street, Peoria; slight injury to head; cut and bruised about body.

Otto Spratt, 4460 LaBadie avenue, St. Louis, one leg and one arm injured.

A. W. Cornell, Springfield; interurban employee; scalp wound.

GOV. GLYNN DEPLORES "FOUR RING CIRCUS"

PROPOSES CREATION OF PERMANENT COURT OF INQUIRY IN NEW YORK

In Message to Legislature New York Executive Deplores Present Investigations Into State Departments—Highway Department Demoralized.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 23.—In a special message to the legislature tonight, which termed the present investigations being conducted in the state a "four ring circus," Governor Glynn proposed the creation of a permanent court of inquiry to be composed of the living former judges of the court of appeals for the purpose of conducting all future inquiries into state departments.

"Justice does not require," he declared, "and the people do not want intended and covert attacks whose only purpose is possibly to glorify the investigator, to answer some partisan ends and through suggestion and innuendo to drive men to distraction, catastrophe and ruin. If our present system of inquisitorial investigation continues, only those men who are incapable of appreciating or are insensible to, such malicious attacks will seek public office."

As a result of investigations the governor said, the highway department already is demoralized and its records are scattered throughout the state. This he added, is only what may be expected in other departments if the present system of inquiry continues.

"There are now seven living judges of the court of appeals, among whom is Alton B. Parker, eminent nominee for the presidency in 1904. The governor believes that all or as many as them as necessary could be induced from a sense of civic duty to serve on the proposed court."

PRESIDENT REVIEWS MILITARY PARADE

PAGEANT AT ALEXANDRIA, VA., IN HONOR OF FIRST PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23.—President Wilson crossed the ice-jammed Potomac today in the naval yacht Sybil, and from a glass-enclosed stand reviewed a civic and military parade in Alexandria, Va., which marched through a frigid snow storm in honor of the first president of the United States.

With the exception of brief exercises in the senate, the national capital turned to Alexandria, in the environment where George Washington had lived, for its official celebration of the birthday. Vice-president Marshall laid a wreath on the tomb of Washington at Mt. Vernon and returning to Alexandria joined the president and members of the cabinet and Governor Stewart of Virginia in watching the parade.

Besides the fraternal organizations of the city, the fire companies of Ancient and Modern Equipment and floats showing scenes of colonial days, the army and navy took a prominent part in the pageant. Weather conditions interfered considerably with the plans of the pageant and at times the ice in the river made landings difficult. It seemed a somewhat hazardous trip for the president to make in view of his susceptibility to colds, but he was in excellent health today and arrangements were such that exposure was reduced to a minimum.

Several troops of United States cavalry escorted him to the reviewing stand, while a twenty-one gun salute was fired by the nearby ships.

Review American Troops.
Manila, Feb. 23.—Former Queen Liliuokalani sat beside Brigadier General Montgomery M. Macomb, U. S. A., today as 7,000 American soldiers passed in review. The troops, marching in a Washington's birthday parade were reviewed by Governor Pinkham at the capital and then passed on to a military reviewing stand.

FROST'S SHOP IS GUTTED BY FLAMES

Early Morning Fire Completely Destroys West Morgan Establishment

AWAKENS J. B. SENG

Second Alarm Calling Firemen to Wells-Fargo Office Proves to Be False

MISS MARY SMITH OWNS BUILDING

Fire of an unknown origin which broke out shortly after 2 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning in the rear of the Smith building, at 218 West Morgan street occupied by the E. R. Frost Electrical company completely gutted the building. J. B. Seng, collector for the Illinois Telephone company, who has a room in the front of the building was awakened by the smoke and had only time to call the fire department and dress, and get out of the building.

As Mr. Seng was coming down the stairs he was met by Night Captain Trahey who had noticed the fire and was going up stairs to awaken him. The department was called and by the time the fire had gotten a good headway the fire at first seemed to be confined entirely to the northeast corner of the building.

Owners Notified.
The buildings adjoining the Frost building are Miller Brothers grocery store and the Illinois stock exchange. It looked for a time as though the strong north and west wind would carry the fire not only to the building adjoining but that it would cross the street on Morgan.

Owners of the various buildings close by were notified and the second fire whistle calling out the extra firemen was the occasion of a large number who assembled to watch the fire fighters and to lend what assistance they could.

No attempt was made to take anything out of the building and the entire structure was silently filled with smoke and the fire was gaining headway toward the middle of the building when the firemen turned the first water on. The blaze in the rear soon subsided to the water, but the firemen were aware that the interior of the building was where the flames were getting in their best hits.

Fearful Gasoline Explosion.
Two streams of water were playing in front of the building and yet with all this the fire steadily crawled to the front and broke out in front of the building. The breaking of the big front glass windows and the shout that went around "Look out for the gasoline to explode" caused the crowd to draw back. It was not until the entire building was gutted that the fire ceased.

Miss Smith Owns Building.
The building is owned by Miss Mary Smith of Diamond street. The building was constructed about twenty years ago and was purchased by Miss Smith from R. C. Smith some 8 or 10 years ago. It is understood that Miss Smith carried only $2,000 insurance on the building.

Second Fire in Year.
The building has been used for some time for an electrical shop, being occupied first by Ben Holkenbrink, then by Paul Trahey and Ernest Frost. Mr. Frost has been managing the establishment for nearly three years. Last summer the building was threatened by a bad fire, but quick action on the part of the firemen saved the loss.

Cold Night for Firemen.
The bitter cold night made the work difficult for the fire fighters, but after they once got their bearings, assisted by a number of citizens the hose was soon laid and the engine started.

Fire Wall a Protection.

The building closest to the Smith property is Miller Brothers. The two buildings at one time were adjoining, but a few years ago a fire wall was built between them which was the only thing which kept the flames from spreading to the grocery store. As it is the upper floor of the Miller building was only damaged by water.

Mr. Seng Speaks of Fire.
Various proprietors of stores were notified and arrived to look after their interests. Mr. Seng, who was the first to discover the fire, and give the alarm, said last night: "The first thing that I noticed was the room full of smoke and I was trying my best to breathe. I arose and slipped into my clothes as quickly as possible and after calling up the fire department I made my way out of the building as quickly as possible. I did not tarry to get out any of my belongings as the smoke was choking me badly. As I was going down the stairway Capt. Trahey, who knew that I slept in the building was coming up to tell me to get out. I have no idea how the fire started."

Stock Partially Insured.
The store was not automobiles in the building, as some at first supposed, but the building contained three

WITNESS TELLS OF BRUTALITY OF GUARDS

ACTIONS OF NATIONAL GUARDSMEN RELATED BY STRIKING MINERS

Witness Declare Strikers Were Kicked and Beaten and Women and Children Mistreated—Men Made Military Prisoners in Colorado.

HANCOCK, Mich., Feb. 23.—Brutality of national guardsmen in the copper miners' strike was charged by a dozen witnesses today before the congressional investigating committee.

The witnesses declared that strikers had been kicked and beaten by the guardsmen and one officer was accused of having struck a woman with his sabre. Women and children were mistreated on numerous occasions by the militiamen, the witnesses testify.

Chairman Taylor admitted into the records a petition presented to Major General Abbey by 173 citizens last autumn, protesting against the presence of the national guardsmen and their alleged attacks on union men. It was agreed by the committee that the charges in the petition would not be accepted as facts until they had been substantiated by witnesses.

When the strikers conclude the presentation of their case, which probably will be tomorrow or Wednesday, an opportunity will be given the representatives of the national guard to reply to the charges.

Made Military Prisoners.
Trinidad, Colo., Feb. 23.—A direct admission by Captain W. H. Danks, that the Colorado national guard in the coal strike zone, has arrested and detained men as military prisoners, was made today. The house investigating committee barred further testimony on that subject. Representative Byrns explaining that the members would decide for themselves whether the facts admitted by Captain Danks constituted an infringement of constitutional rights. "We will consult the decision of the supreme court on the subject," he added.

J. M. Hendrick, deputy district attorney, was called by the strikers to testify that since the calling of the strike the civil courts had been open for business at all times. All questioned as to whether or not his official work had been interrupted with at the time of the arrival of the militia, he said he had received a telephonic communication from Gen. John Chase, threatening to arrest the district attorney in the office. The alleged threat of arrest, he alleged, was occasioned by the release of four men whom he said Gen. Chase claimed as military prisoners.

FIRE DELAYS JOURNAL.

On account of live wires, endangering the firemen all of the power at the light plant was shut-off, including the lights and motor circuit at the Journal. This caused a delay of three hours in getting the paper out this morning.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Heck Hall, a dormitory for theological students on the campus of Northwestern university was destroyed tonight by fire. The cause of fire is not known. The loss is estimated at $60,000. The building had recently been decorated and remodeled.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 23.—Ritchie Mitchell, Milwaukee feather-weight, easily outboxed Patsy Brannigan of Pittsburgh, in a ten round go in Milwaukee tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 23.—Grape juice and women delegates to the convention of the state troopers club met defeat today when the followers of Theodore A. Bell overhauled the suffragists and passed a resolution opposing state-wide prohibition.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 23.—Major Benjamin M. Kohler, well known in the United States military service, will be tried by a general court martial tomorrow at Port Terry on Blum Island, thirteen miles from here. Until recently he had been on duty with the coast artillery at the fort. No official announcement has been made of the charges against him.

motorcycles—a twin Indian, a single cylinder Indian and a single cylinder Excelsior. Aside from a number of other bicycles, there were four new 1914 model Pope bicycles and Mr. Frost had just received his season's supply of tires. The building also contained a large amount of new supplies, together with a regular stock. Mr. Frost stated this morning that his insurance will cover probably three fourths of the loss. Mr. Frost and his force had just completed involving in the west room and had cleaned up the east room in preparation for inventory.

Second Alarm Proves False.
Just a few minutes after the first alarm was given a second one was turned in, this one for the Wells-Fargo Express office on West State street, which on investigation proved false. Someone saw the smoke from the large stack at the municipal light plant coming over the top of the Wells-Fargo building and, presuming that the place was on fire notified the department. The whistle was blown a third time, this being for the call firemen.

ASSERTS ENGLAND IS POWERLESS TO TAKE ANY MEASURES IN MEXICO

THE LONDON PAPERS.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Standard editorially expresses discontent at what it considers the British foreign secretary's mild attitude toward the United States and says: "Sir Edward Grey seems inclined to treat the murder of Benton with cool philosophy, altogether out of harmony with the feelings of the nation. We desire to remain on the friendliest terms with the United States but cannot waive the duty of protecting our nationals abroad, or we shall cease to be a great power. And we cannot permit the crime to go unpunished merely because President Wilson and Secretary Bryan may conceivably adopt Villa's defence of the murder as a justifiable execution."

The Daily Telegraph, equally dissatisfied, argues that the United States by opening its Mexican frontier to the passage of arms and munitions is precluded from using force in Mexico because of its sincere regard for the United States. It is also true we have abandoned, we hope, forever, the idea that there ever can be any question of the employment of force in our relations with the United States, but this does not leave Sir Edward Grey as helpless as he seems to suppose. He has on his side all those lofty principles of justice, humanity and self-interest which President Wilson relies on. He has only to mention them to carry his case and make irresistible appeal to the United States government."

The Daily Mail.

"Sir Edward Grey's statement," says the Daily Mail "is disappointing because it gives the impression of complete British helplessness. It is true that the British government is precluded from using force in Mexico because of its sincere regard for the United States. It is also true we have abandoned, we hope, forever, the idea that there ever can be any question of the employment of force in our relations with the United States, but this does not leave Sir Edward Grey as helpless as he seems to suppose. He has on his side all those lofty principles of justice, humanity and self-interest which President Wilson relies on. He has only to mention them to carry his case and make irresistible appeal to the United States government."

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The British parliament and press have been stirred by the recent killing of William S. Benton, a British subject by order of the Mexican constitutionalists general, Francisco Villa, at Juarez and today the question of protection for British interests and for Englishmen residing in Mexico was made the subject of earnest consideration both in the house of commons and in the columns of the newspapers.

Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, outlined the attitude of the British government and the nature of the communications which the British ambassador at Washington had had with the government of the United States. He said Sir Cecil Spring-Rice had told Secretary of State Bryan the public opinion of Europe was likely to be seriously affected by the action of General Villa.

The foreign secretary assured the house the government was taking all possible steps to learn the facts of the Benton case and to secure full protection for its nationals in Mexico but pointed out that the government was powerless to take any measures in the disturbed regions. Francis Dyke Acland, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs made an earlier statement in which he said:

"The pacification of Mexico is an object we earnestly desire to see accomplished but it is impossible to affect it by British intervention. We do not intend to make any attempt of that character which would be both futile and impolitic."

That the British government is moved by the incident is evidenced by the fact that Sir Edward has communicated with the ambassador at Washington respecting steps that might be possible to take to ascertain the whereabouts of these people.

Developments in Washington.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Regardless of whether or not the execution of William S. Benton, a British subject, by General Villa was justified today's developments which emphasized clearly that protection of foreigners in rebel-torn Mexico had become a commanding problem of increased international importance unappreciated no less by President Wilson than by leaders in congress. Briefly these were the day's developments.

After a conference with President Wilson, acting Chairman Shively of the senate foreign relations and members of the committee reached an understanding that the Mexican question if taken up in the senate should be discussed behind closed doors.

Pending resolutions looking to better protection for foreigners soon will be taken up by the senate. The discussion in the British parliament of the Benton incident was read with much interest by officials who observed particularly that the United States was held personally responsible by Sir Edward Grey for the death of Benton.

Intimations were received through semi-official channels that marines would be landed by Japan and France to act as legation guards in Mexico City along with those of Great Britain and Germany.

That the Huerta government is not averse to the sending of foreign legation guards to Mexico City is known here officially, but the United States for the present at least, will not follow the course of other nations.

The whole tenor of the Mexican situation while revealing no activity, reflected the same anxiety and perplexing tangles which often has characterized it through days of extreme tension.

The report mailed by American Consular representatives at Juarez had not reached here late today and is expected tomorrow.

The attempt to exhum Benton's body though unavailing as yet, is expected to bring further evidence. Just what will be the final judgement of the American officials in the case no one will predict, but it would not be surprising to many in official circles if Villa's explanation went unchallenged in the absence of satisfactory proof with which to impeach. That the American government may pass on to Great Britain the facts as found without indicating any judgement at all in the matter is considered by some diplomatists as a likely course. Steps to secure better protection for English nationals then are expected to follow and it is this feature of the case which is provoking a discussion of a possible assertion of policy on the part of the United States which might express itself anew on the subject of protection to foreigners.

Villa Pleads Self Defense.

Chihuahua, Mex., Feb. 23.—General Villa's story of the killing of William S. Benton, told by reporters here today, differs but little from the official statement given out Saturday at Juarez.

The Juarez statement given out declared that when Benton reached for his hip pocket Villa knocked him down with a blow of the fist. Villa said that when Benton made this move he pointed his own pistol at Benton and then turned him over to the guards.

According to Villa, Benton, after the verdict of the court martial confessed his guilt and declined to ask for mercy. He merely requested that his property be turned over to his widow.

Villa contradicted his official report to the American consul at Juarez that Gustav Baueh, a German-American accused of being a spy had been brought to Chihuahua. Villa said he knew nothing of him.

Came on Pretext.

Of Benton's death he said: "Benton gained admission to my office in Juarez on the pretext that he wanted to see me on some personal business connected with his ranch in Los Remedios, near the city of Chihuahua. As soon as he entered he began to address me in abusive language. I had had some experience with him before and knew of his violent temper. I knew also that he had mixed too freely in Mexican politics but I did not suspect he was coming into my office to murder me."

"He had not talked long when he reached for his hip pocket. It flashed over me that he intended to kill me. I seized his hand and at the same time thrust my revolver into the pit of his stomach to stop him. I did not wish to appear bloodthirsty and therefore did not shoot him myself. My guards seized him, took his pistol away from him and placed him under arrest."

"It was decided to try him by court martial and this was done in the regular manner prescribed by law and the prisoner was executed eighteen hours after he had made the attempt on my life. That is all there is to it. We would have treated any other offender in the same way, whether he was American, Spanish, German or Japanese."

Guilt of Other Offenses.

"Benton was not only guilty of attempting murder but of other offenses, for we have proof of his enmity to our cause and of the aid he rendered our enemies. However, he was executed for attempting to take my life. I have nothing to conceal about it. I know the incident has aroused comment in the United States and Europe and that is why I am making this statement. A man who acted as Benton did would have received the treatment in any other country."

"I want to emphasize the fact that I did not kill Benton myself. I would not soil my hands with the detail of the execution after the court had found him guilty. After the verdict Benton confessed. He did not appeal for mercy but asked that his property be secured to his wife. We promised that this would be done. Statements have been made that we have executed other foreigners but these are untrue. Benton is the only one."

STRAY TOPICS FROM OLD NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 23.—Few people realize the enormous amounts of money that are frequently earned by things so small that they almost escape public notice. For instance, who would suppose that an enormous fortune is represented by the yearly profits from the little newstands, the penny in the slot machines and the advertising privileges in the subway and elevated railway stations and trains in this city. That such is the case, however, is evidenced by the figures contained in a contract just concluded between the Interborough Rapid Transit Co. and a firm that bid for these privileges. The firm has agreed to pay $600,000 for the first year, $700,000 a year for the next four, and $800,000 a year and 10 per cent of the gross receipts for the last ten years, a total of $11,400,000 exclusive of the percentage receipts.

Some years ago a German immigrant landed in New York and looked about for a promising business opening in which to invest the small capital he had brought over with him. The sight of the brigades of shop girls pouring out of the big stores in the vicinity of Twenty-third street, the center of the retail shopping district, suggested an idea to him. By inquiry he learned that a vast number of the girls brought their noon day lunch and ate it in rooms provided for the purpose by the establishment in which they were employed. The German hired a storeroom in the neighborhood and opened a delicatessen shop. His place differed from the ordinary shops of its kind in that it made a specialty of selling food in small quantities. Customers were supplied with a penny's worth of bread, butter, coffee, cookies, pickles, slices of ham and other meats and a variety of other foodstuffs. The new system supplied a want, and therein was to be found the secret of its success. Soon it was found necessary to enlarge the establishment and scores of clerks were necessary to wait on the shop girls when they trooped in at noon each day. Big restaurants and lunch rooms in the neighborhood failed, but the delicatessen shop kept by the former immigrant prospered. Some years ago the proprietor retired with a considerable fortune that had come wholly from the pennies of the shop girls.

Another, though not so creditable a way to make money, has been recalled by the recent run on a savings bank in this city. Not so many years ago a Jew kept a little private bank in the Ghetto district town Houston street. The establishment was small, but the proprietor was known to be wealthy, and his bank caught the savings of a vast number of people living in the neighborhood. About once a year, a few weeks before the date on which the interest on deposits became payable, a rumor would be circulated in the neighborhood that would cause a run on the bank. The queue of men, women and children awaiting their turn to withdraw their deposits would frequently extend half way around the block. Every depositor was invariably paid in full as soon as the book was presented. A week or so later, when the run had subsided and the bank still remained open, the majority of the customers regained their confidence and returned their money to the bank. It is not on record that the banker himself was responsible for the periodical runs on his bank, but it is certain that the system added to his yearly profits the several thousand dollars that he would have had to pay out in the interest if the depositors had not withdrawn their money.

A brilliant mirage attracted the attention of wayfarers along the shores of Raritan Bay the other afternoon, when the Atlantic Highlands assumed almost Alpine proportions, and Sandy Hook and its fortifications and Coney Island, which are generally invisible to most of the region, rose into plain view, while between them a tug towing three scows in from the sea could be distinguished, seemingly aviating 40 or 50 feet in the air. The spectacle was much enjoyed by the passengers on the suburban trains coming into New York from the North Jersey coast towns. Mirages are not uncommon about the harbor, but the oldest traveler could not recall one so pronounced at this time of year.

Dorothy Dale, the young woman who has figured conspicuously of late in the newspapers as the cast-off chorus girl bride of Richard J. Howard, a wealthy young man of St. Louis, has been engaged to appear at the Victoria theatre next week. Miss Dale will present a series of "fashion studies" with the assistance of some startling gowns. It was about two months ago that the young woman was married to Howard in the "Little Church Around the Corner," following a few weeks' acquaintance, which began in London. Howard's people interposed objections to the marriage and when the couple went to St. Louis, they received a cold reception. Then the husband disappeared, and the young wife returned to New York. She has started a divorce suit against her husband and an action for damages against his mother, who, she says, alienated her husband's affections. Miss Dale, by the way, is a stepdaughter of the late Della Fox, the popular comedienne.

The assertion of Carl E. Whitney, an assistant United States district attorney, that habit forming drugs are sold in New York in "appalling quantities" brings to mind a story which a New York clergyman recently told his congregation. He was discoursing on the prevalence of the drug habit and the duty of the public to stop the evil traffic. His story has the additional merit of being true. The principal was a young woman, scarcely more than a girl, who lived with her parents up the state. The couple were not moved with an over abundance of worldly goods. They wished to put their daughter in a way to be self-supporting after they were gone. So they mortgaged their little farm and with the proceeds sent the young woman to a hospital near New York to learn to be a professional nurse. There the girl fell in with an older nurse who was addicted to the cocaine habit. The older woman would send the girl to New York to purchase the drug for her. Soon the girl succumbed to the temptation of the "pleasure powder." In a short time she was confirmed in the habit. Word of her plight reached her aged parents on their little farm up state. They mortgaged their furniture and with the money sent the girl to an institution for the treatment of those addicted to drink and drugs. The girl, the clergyman said, had a sincere desire to overcome the habit. But the old craving would seize her and when it did she found no difficulty in obtaining the drug to satisfy it. She wrote to the druggist and he sent her cocaine while she was still in the institution under treatment. The girl died and her parents lost their farm. The druggist is still a respected member of the community.

STREET CAR SERVICE GOOD.

By having cars going all through Sunday night the management of the Street Railway was able to keep traffic practically uninterrupted all day Monday. The South Main street schedule was changed in such a way that one car ran from the square to Michigan avenue and another from that point to the terminus of the line. The fact that the cars were kept in operation was a great source of convenience to the public.

WHEN POVERTY PINCHES.

It is in times of cold winter weather, such as has been experienced in this city for the past two or three weeks, that cases of extreme poverty are especially noticeable. One case in particular was called to the attention of neighbors Monday, and when some food was taken to the family it was found that their larder was completely exhausted. The mother is ill and there are four or five children at the house. It is understood that the family was given a load of coal a few days ago, and the visitors noticed that there was a good fire in the house, but the matter of food is still a question.

DREAD TRIPS TODAY.

There were no regrets among the rural mail carriers yesterday, because the day was observed as Washington's birthday. While the storm has abated the men realize that they will have a severe time today making the routes, as the drifts in some places are above the top of an ordinary buggy.

Senior Academy Class of Woman's College Give Pleasing Presentation of Well Known Play—Proceeds for Endowment Fund.

"Mr. Bob" Presented BY COLLEGE GIRLS

The play given Monday evening in Masih hall by the Senior Academy class of the Woman's college. While the severe winter weather kept many at home those who were present felt more than repaid. The young ladies had worked on the production for two weeks and they are deserving of the highest praise for the manner in which they presented it. "Mr. Bob" abounds in humorous situations, following close on each other, and Jenkins (the butler) played by Marjorie Becker and "Patty, the maid" taken by Ruth Alexander were perhaps the most funny characters. They kept the audience in laughter continuously; in fact each character was strongly given. The cast was trained by Miss Editha Parsons, head of the School of Expression. The young ladies gave the play to secure money to pay their pledge toward the endowment fund of the college. Miss Olive Gower, the stage manager is deserving much credit for her work.

The following was the cast: Mr. Philip Royson—Flora Mueller.

Robert Brown—Edna Kesler. Jenkins (the butler)—Marjorie Becker.

Miss Rebecca Luke—Gertrude Wilson. Marion Bryant—Helen Thomas. Katherine Royson—Katherine Long.

Patty, the maid—Ruth Alexander.

It will also prevent embezzlement of stamps from post offices. Similar meters are now regularly being used in Germany and Austria. Jacksonville firms, who have been transacting business with the large firms the government has named, have been attracted by the stamp.

B. R. Upham, One of the Early Arrivals in the Business District Monday Morning—Gives Recollections of His Boyhood Days.

One of the first men to enter an office in the Ayers National Bank building yesterday, was B. R. Upham, who has rooms with Dr. and Mrs. Pitner, near the school building for the Deaf. Though born Feb. 27, 1839, consequently 84 years old, he is nimble and active and gets about swifter than many a young man.

He was born in Youngstown, Ohio, on the far famed western reserve, and came of an excellent family. When he was ten years old, his father moved to this county and settled in the vicinity of Arcadia, where the young lad grew to maturity, attending the district school and enjoying such advantages as were afforded young people at that early day. He made good use of his privileges and acquired a good business education under difficulties.

In the home of his boyhood, lived Mr. Grierson, whose son, Benjamin H., was a playmate of young Upham. The latter says that Ben was the champion athlete and musician of the whole vicinity. He could skate faster, dive deeper and swim better than any boy anywhere about, and at twelve he successfully led a band.

In 1851, young Upham went to Mercedosia, where he clerked for William & Knight, the latter afterward a well known physician of this place. In 1853 he went to Beardstown and kept books for Nolte & McClure, grain dealers and meat packers. There he remained till 1856, when he came to this place and in partnership with Preston Spates, opened one of three groceries in the place, the establishment being on East State street. One of the other groceries was owned by William Corcoran and the other by William Ratchin, later mayor of this city for a year.

For four years Mr. Upham was sutler with the 114th Illinois Infantry and saw much of the war. At Yazoo Pass, the colonel commanding wouldn't let him go to the regiment and he was much disappointed. Finally he was told to go to Gen. Sherman and make his complaint. That seemed rather bold, but he determined to try it, and accordingly proceeded to headquarters, where he saw not only Gen. Sherman, but also Gen. Grant and Gen. McPherson.

He was mistaken in the name of the colonel commanding, and told Gen. Sherman that it was Col. Bissell, but Gen. Grant at once remarked: "You are mistaken sir; I relieved Col. Bissell for a mistake he made at Island, Tenn."

Gen. Sherman courteously granted the request and the sutler followed the regiment all right. On his return from the war, he kept books for Fitzsimmons & Cassell, then extensive grocers in the room now occupied by Frost & Nolley, shoe merchants. In a few years he was elected city clerk, which place he held four successive years and then was elected county clerk, holding that place nine years. Since that time he has been in the real estate and insurance business on his own account and few men of his age are as active and clear minded as he.

While in Beardstown, he was one night invited to a party at the home of Judge Dummer, Miss Susan Ellis of this place was also a guest. They went on dry walks, but during the evening a furious snow storm arose and when the guests departed, they had six to eight inches of snow to wade through.

There were no railroads in or through Beardstown then, but all roads were blocked. Mr. Upham said all stock for the packing house had to be driven to the place and sometimes hogs and cattle were sent for many miles. A man across the river had bought a bunch of some fifty feeders and was taking them across the ice, when the cattle became stampeded and broke away and found their way to thin ice and every one was drowned. Mr. Upham saw it and said it was the most exciting thing of the kind he ever saw.

A North Dakota Storm. Dr. C. C. Cochran once lived in North Dakota several years. He said the storm of yesterday was hardly an incident compared with what they had up there. The snow would freeze and come down in blinding quantity and in fine ice, which would cut the face of one exposed. Sometimes, it drifted so that the doctor said he could climb from the top of his chimney out on the snow.

A man who had a lot of cattle would wait till a huge drift had formed and then he would get a force of men with wheel barrows and excavate in the drift as large as he wanted. Then under the upper part he would put poles, sustained by posts and hay or straw over the poles, thus making a shelter as warm and close as could be imagined and this they would occupy till spring.

Once a man and his son were surprised in a field by a sudden blizzard and by kneeling and crawling on their hands and knees and following furrows, they were enabled to reach the barn, but how to get to the house was a problem, as more than one person had perished in attempting a shorter trip than that. Finally they got hold of a large ball of binder twine and tying one end to a corner of the barn, they kept hold of the other and walked in an ever widening circle till they found the house.

CITY PRISON POPULAR

LODGING PLACE. The bad storm and severe weather drove to shelter many homeless wanderers who found refuge in every possible nook and corner in the city prison Sunday night. Some of the applicants showed signs of much exposure and hard luck. One man said he had walked here from Arenzville and his clothes were frozen stiff on his body. Chief Davis kindly put the poor fellow in a comfortable place and fed him Sunday night and Monday morning before he left. A large number again found shelter last night.

RAILROADS ARE HEAVY
SUFFERERS FROM STORMONLY TWO PASSENGERS ARRIVE IN CITY MONDAY.C. & A. Has Three Trains Stuck in Snow Drifts—Burlington Annuls
Passenger Trains—Wabash and C.
P. & St. L. Stuck.

Traffic on all railroad trains through this city was almost completely paralyzed by the blizzard which raged Sunday night and all day Monday. Three passengers on the Wabash were not freed until about 8:30 last night and one of them stuck in a drift east of the city. The Chicago & Alton has three passengers in drifts, the Burlington annulled all of its passengers and local freights and the C. P. & St. L. passenger is still lodged in the drift it struck at 6:30 o'clock Sunday night.

Three Alton Passengers Stuck.
Three passenger trains on the Chicago & Alton are fast in snow drifts, one four miles south of the city and two between Hopedale and Minier, north of this city.

The passenger which is due to arrive in this city from St. Louis at 9:30 Sunday night struck a mammoth drift at Davis switch, four miles south of the city and although three extra engines and a force of about forty men were busy at work the train was still fast at a late hour last night. Grover L. Thompson of White Hall, a passenger on the train, told the following story of the train's encounter with the storm: "The first big snow drift was struck just out of Woodson about 11 o'clock Sunday night. Here the train was delayed about thirty minutes and after a fifteen minute run struck a drift at Davis that held the train fast. Repeated attempts were made to move the train but to no avail. Fireman Strunk said that the snow appeared to be eight feet deep about the engine.

"Two men left the train for help and an engine arrived from the south about 4:30 o'clock Monday morning, but stuck in the snow about fifteen feet from the passenger and could do no good. At 6:30 o'clock the water in the tank ran low and the men began to scoop snow into the tank, in order to keep up the heat. Little was accomplished in this manner, however, and the heat was shut off at 7 o'clock.

"A sled from Jacksonville with men to scoop snow arrived at 8:15 o'clock and took back the women, two children and a few men. The remainder of the men went into the baggage car, ate lunch which the passengers had and drank some coffee prepared by the mail clerk. A few of the passengers went to a farm house and after securing a meal there came back to the train, bringing a lunch with them.

"A second sled from Cherry's livery arrived at the train about 2:30 o'clock and by 3 o'clock the passengers were all on their way to town." The Alton managed to get one train into the city during the day. No. 15, southbound, which is due to arrive here at 10:42 a. m., arriving about 11:30 a. m. On account of the trouble south this train was turned around here and left the city about 1:40 p. m., but became lodged in a drift between Hopedale and Minier. No. 33, south bound, due here at 3:55 p. m., also stuck in the drift between Hopedale and Minier.

The main line of the Alton is practically clear and trains have been running south from Springfield via the Murrayville cut-off to Roadhouse and west and south from that point. The Springfield-Peoria division seems to have fared worse than the local line, as traffic there has been discontinued until further notice.

C. P. Train Still in Drift.
The Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis passenger in charge of Conductor Winchester and Engineer Thomas Heaton of this city, which runs between Jacksonville and Havana, is still stuck fast in a snow-drift where it became lodged at 6:30 o'clock Sunday night. The train is two and one half miles south of Virginia. Passengers were taken to Virginia and farmers who live nearby give the train crew and passengers food. Superintendent Ingrund of the local car shops started with an engine to aid in getting the passenger out of the drift but could go only as far as Savage when he was forced to return to the city. At present it is impossible to tell when the train will be able to proceed.

Burlington Annuls Passengers.
All passenger trains and both local freights on the Burlington through this city were annulled Monday on account of the snow. Two engines, one headed north and the other headed south, were coupled together and plowed their way from Concord to this city, arriving here about 3:05 o'clock Monday afternoon. The engines made the return trip to Concord and then came back to this city, proceeding south from here. The locomotives left Jacksonville for the south at 5:55 o'clock last night, clearing the south bound main track between Franklin and this city. The engines remained in Franklin over night.

Although local freight and passenger service on the Burlington was discontinued efforts were made to move through freights, but they proved of no avail. One is stalled in Concord, two in Franklin, two in Virden, one at Barnett and one at Litchfield. Trains runnings north are carrying only half the regular load. A train load of linemen was started north yesterday, repairing wire trouble and got as far as Virden where they remained last night. They are to start out this morning and work north until all trouble is cleared up.

Wabash Stalled East of Town.
About 8:30 o'clock last night the Wabash had all three of their trains out of the drifts near Markham. The first to come in was No. 12, which was due in this city at 9:45 o'clock Sunday night. It was started in an effort to reach Springfield about 7:30 o'clock last night but stuck in a large drift three miles east of the city and held fast. The other two trains were No. 28, due here at 1:36 Monday morning and No. 4, due here at 8:30 Monday morning.

When the water supply on the engine of No. 12 reached a minimum the passengers rigged up a stove in one of the coaches and by taking a few boxes on the train and carrying coal from the engine managed to keep enough fire to be comparatively comfortable. Some food was supplied from a club car attached to one of the trains and 100 sandwiches and 10 gallons of coffee were taken out Monday morning for the passengers.

One train arrived from the east Monday morning but remained in this city. All other passenger trains were annulled. The local Wabash yards presented a busy aspect Monday night with three passenger trains and about nine locomotives, which were sent here to battle with the snow drifts. As soon as it was learned that the passenger stuck east of town three engines were sent out and made an effort to push the train through, but to no avail. A large number of men were put to work shovelling snow, but the chances of freeing the train for several hours, seemed small. Dr. David Reid, who started to Arnold on the train, walked back to the city after it was seen that the train would be delayed for several hours. He was accompanied by a traveling man.

GIVE COLONIAL ENTERTAINMENT
AT KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HALLCatholic Ladies' Aid Society Heard
In Successful Event Monday Evening—Will Repeat Program Tonight.

The Ladies' Aid society of the church of Our Saviour gave a Colonial entertainment at the Knights of Columbus hall, Friday evening which, despite the bad weather, was attended by several hundred people. Everything in the program was in keeping with Colonial days. A very pretty effect was wrought when the colored lights were turned upon the ladies who took part, all of whom were arrayed in Colonial dress. Much credit is due the ladies for the amount of work they put upon the entertainment and to William T. Harmon, who trained them in their drills and tableaux. The committee in charge was Mrs. William Mason, chairman; Mrs. Anton Graef, Mrs. John Buckley, Mrs. Fred Degen, Mrs. J. W. Clary, Mrs. Patrick Quigley and Miss Mae Carroll.

L. F. O'Donnell took the part of George Washington for the ladies and pleased every one with his representation of the Father of his Country. Mrs. Buckley very becomingly took the part of Martha Washington. The costumes and setting were very beautiful and each performer made a decided impression as she appeared in her respective part.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, which kept a number away, the ladies will repeat the performance again this evening. The program as follows:

HIGH DRIFT OF SNOW.
Several citizens testify to the big drift of snow just east of Oak Lawn in the public highway. H. E. Smith, says that a team cannot pass through that point at all. Mittendorf, the dairyman became fasted in the drift with a rig and had to get the services of a farmer to pull him out. Two men on horseback, by going next to the fence, managed to pass the point.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES POSTPONED.
Owing to the severity of the storm the exercises in connection with the unveiling of the memorial tablet presented by the D. A. R. have been indefinitely postponed. Due notice of them will be given in the daily press when the date is fixed.

MR. WILLIAM BECKER WEDS MISS OLLIE WEATHERFORD

Ceremony Said at Noon Sunday at Home of Bride by the Rev. G. W. Flagg—Young People Leave For Oklahoma.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weatherford, 435 East College avenue at high noon Sunday, when their daughter Miss Sarah Ollie, became the bride of Mr. William Becker, Rev. G. W. Flagg, pastor of the Centenary church, officiating.

Harry E. Neff, an uncle of the bride played "The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin," while the young people entered the parlor by way of the east stairway. An arch constructed in the double door of fern leaves, smilax and roses formed a bower where the ceremony was beautifully and tenderly solemnized. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride was attended by Miss Florence E. Bourn and the groom, by Louis H. Sheely. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white charmeuse satin, trimmed in Princess lace and wore a tulle veil caught with narcissus, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of light blue charmeuse satin, trimmed in shadow lace and pink rose buds, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony an elaborate four course dinner was served by the bride's parents, in charge of Mrs. J. Bourn assisted in serving by Miss Mabel Louelle Bourn and Miss Zella H. Keller. Forty relatives and friends of the young people were present. After the dinner a picture of the bridal party was taken by Mr. Neff of Springfield.

The house was decorated with pink and white roses, carnations, ferns and palms. The parlor decorations were green and white, those of the double dining room were pink and white.

The wedding cake was cut and it afforded no little amusement. The key was found by the bride, the darning needle by Miss Mabel L. Bourn, the ring by Mr. Roy Weatherford, and the dime by Miss Cornelia Stice. After the cutting of the cake, the bride presented her roses to the bridesmaid.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weatherford. She received her education in the public schools of this city, graduating from the high school with the class of 1913. She is a member of Alpha Beta Literary society of the high school. She was a member of Centenary church and the Martha society.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker of 935 South Main street and is a well respected farmer high school. She is a member of the Berea church of that community. Both bride and groom come from well known and highly respected families and are held in high esteem by all who know them.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker left over the Wabash at 6:25 Sunday evening for Springfield and from there will go to Oklahoma. They will be at home to their friends March 20th, north of Alexander.

The bride and groom were recipients of many beautiful gifts of cut glass, silver and linens.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Neff and daughter, Jane of Springfield, and the Misses Carrie and Cornelia Stice of Waverly.

THE SCHOOLS CLOSED.

The board of education wisely decided yesterday morning to abandon the ward schools and accordingly telephoned all they could of the fact. The high school and eighth grade had but one session and then dismissed for the day.

In the high school Principal Collins said he would arrange it so that those who were present would gain no advantage over the absent ones and instead of having regular recitations the teachers would have special work with the pupils and aid them in bringing up any back work of subjects not fully understood. S. W. Nichols was present and addressed the school giving some reminiscences of early days.

In the eighth grade the Washington program was carried out as announced. The teachers of the high school and the pupils are equally patriotic but Principal Collins said the school work was so broken in on by holiday and special occasions that it had not seemed best to intrude on it any more than was absolutely necessary.

RAPID BUILDING IN 1877.

In these days people are apt to think that building operations are pushed along much more rapidly than was true years ago. However, John L. Johnson recalled the other day that his father started the building now occupied by Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie, Feb. 1st, 1877, and it was ready for occupancy and use May 1st. Wood & Montgomery had the carpentry contract and Wesley Platt the brick work and they pushed the job along with such rapidity that the three story building, 33 by 130 in its general dimensions, was, as noted, erected in three months' time. They were early spring months, too, when the weather was unfavorable for outdoor work part of the time.

EAST AND WEST TO MEET.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—The Empire State Society of Chicago and the California Society of Chicago have completed arrangements for an interesting joint meeting at the Hotel LaSalle tomorrow evening. The purpose of the function is to arouse interest in the Panama canal expedition and to bring about a better social relationship between the two organizations.

Suffragists

By WALT MASON

The suffrage dames who play their games just like the whiskered fellers, who bravely stand and make demand for votes, are city dwellers. The squawky ones behind the guns have homes that need attention; they run outdoors, neglecting chores too numerous to mention. The city wife has an idle life of ease and sloth is leading; no more she makes the ginger cakes, no more the dough she kneads; she pulls with vim her husband's limb for rhino for her spending, and spends her days in useless ways, in foolish schemes unending. The farmers' fraus have hens and cows to keep them sane and busy; they fix the coops nor give three whoops for movements vain and dizzy. They sell their ducks and earn some bucks to buy ten yards of kingham; they henfruit self and husband well the money it will bring 'em. The farmers' wives lead useful lives, and not an hour is wasted; the city ways, the slothful days, they have Prince and Polly, with cash to spare and do not care for votes or other folly.

ST. LOUIS EAGLES DEDICATE NEW HOME.

Sunday will be a day long to be remembered by the Eagles of St. Louis. The St. Louis aeria will have a membership of 1,200, and its membership growing from 60 to 90 each meeting. Sunday moved in their new home. It was formerly the Union club, valued at $127,000, and the aeria purchased it at $55,000. A chorus from canary birds greeted the members and visitors at the new home. Beside the various committees composed of prominent citizens of St. Louis, the ladies auxiliary of St. Louis aeria No. 41 also took a very important part in the program. The following aerias were represented at the dedication: Granite City, East St. Louis, Belleville, Staunton, Witt, Alton and Jacksonville.

Hon. William N. Hairgrove represented Jacksonville aeria, and was together with Judge Benjamin F. Clark of St. Louis, one of the principal speakers.

SNOW INTERFERED WITH TRIP.

Ernest Grassly had an exciting time with the snow. Saturday evening he went to Springfield and Sunday morning to Bloomington. It took him seven hours to get back to Bloomington Sunday evening, the train taking two hours to get over one space of fifteen miles. Monday morning he spent two more hours getting from Springfield to Jacksonville and was thankful to be at home. On the way from Springfield he says he saw at least 500 men shoveling snow and many fires keeping them warm.

TAMPA CAPTURED BY PIRATES.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 23.—Hundreds of visitors joined with the residents of Tampa in the enjoyment of the annual carnival today, when Gasparilla and his band of "Pirates" sailed into the harbor and took possession of the city. Picturesquely attired in costumes of 150 years ago the band of freebooters effected a landing and after meeting with a feeble resistance were given the keys of the city. An additional feature of the day's program was the formal opening of the new $250,000 Lafayette street bridge.

INDIVIDUALS WITH NET INCOME LESS THAN $2,500 NOT SUB- JECT TO TAX.

Collector Pickering Answers Question Asked by Jacksonville Man—No Return Need Be Made in Such Case.

A Jacksonville man, who some time since received a blank from J. L. Pickering, collector of revenue for this district, to make return on the income tax, figured that he was not liable to the tax. He was in doubt as to whether he should fill out the blank and file it anyhow and wrote to the collector for information. There are doubtless various Jacksonville citizens who received blanks who do not believe that they are subject to this tax and they will be interested in the letter to Mr. Pickering and his answer:

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 20, 1914.

Mr. J. L. Pickering, Springfield, Ill.
Dear Sir: Some weeks since I received from your office a blank for the income tax. After going into the figures carefully and making the deductions allowed by the law I find that my net income is slightly less than the amount fixed by the law. I am therefore not subject to the law. Will you kindly inform me as to whether or not a return should be made giving the figures showing how I have arrived at the result.

Yours very truly,

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21, 1914.

Dear Sir: Please inform all inquirers that an individual whose net income (as developed on line 3, page 1, form 1040) for the last ten months of 1913 was less than $2,500 is not required by law to make a return under the income tax law. If the amount is $2,500 or more, a return is required, which must be forwarded to this office not later than March 1st, 1914.

Personal and living expenses of the individual and family are not to be deducted in computing the net income.

A widow or widower is regarded as a single person.

Yours,
J. L. Pickering,
Collector.

WOMEN IN CHICAGO PRIMARIES.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Seldom in the history of Chicago has so much interest been aroused in a political election as is now manifested in the aldermanic primaries to be held tomorrow, when nominations will be made by the various parties for one alderman in each of the 35 wards. The unusual interest arises from the fact that the primaries will afford the women their first opportunity to exercise the franchise given them under the suffrage law. Politicians have no way in which to estimate the division of the women's vote among parties and factions and consequently there are more wards than usual in which the results of the primary fights are in doubt. The situation is further complicated by the fact that several women are contesting for aldermanic nominations.

CHICAGO OBSERVES HOLIDAY.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Public offices were closed and business was largely suspended in Chicago today, while patriotic organizations and numerous social and other societies contributed by the holding of various suitable functions, to the celebration of Washington's birthday. Under the auspices of the Union League club the customary exercises were held for the benefit of the pupils of the public schools.

AMERICANS IN BERLIN CELEBRATE.

Berlin, Feb. 23.—The American colony in Berlin joined today in holding the customary celebration in honor of Washington's birthday anniversary. The feature of the day was a dinner at which Ambassador Gerard presided. In addition to the ambassador the speakers at the function included Prof. Paul Shorey of the University of Chicago and Consul General Robert P. Skinner.

THE HOLIDAY IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Practically all Washington united today to pay tribute to the "Father of his Country" in commemoration of the 182nd anniversary of his birth. Memorial exercises were held in the schools and numerous patriotic societies held services during the day. In the senate, Senator Swanson of Virginia read Washington's farewell address to a throng which tested the capacity of the galleries.

TO VOTE ON COMMISSION PLAN.

Green Bay, Wis., Feb. 23.—A special election is to be held in Green Bay tomorrow to decide upon the acceptance or rejection of the commission plan of municipal government. The question was voted upon two years ago, but failed to carry by a small majority. Advocates of the plan believe it will be adopted by the voters tomorrow.

SILAGE FEEDING.

In an address before the Illinois
State Farmers' Institute at Galesburg last week on the subject of "Silage as a Factor in Cattle Feeding," Mr. W. H. Smith of the University of Illinois said:
In starting cattle no other feed can be used in such large quantities and as safely as corn silage. During the early part of the feeding period when roughage comprises the larger proportion of the ration silage proves its greatest worth, and when properly supplemented with other feeds it is one of the most economical roughages in the corn belt.

Steers in normal condition weighing around 1,000 pounds will consume 35 to 40 pounds daily per head. Its succulent nature has a beneficial effect on the digestive organs, keeps the animals in good general thrift and lessens the chance of throwing them off feed, as often happens with other feeds. This amount of silage should be gradually reduced approximately one-half by the end of the third month, so as to increase the consumption of grain.
The reverse of this method is often followed and usually the results are unsatisfactory. By this method cattle should be on full feed of corn, corn silage and cotton seed meal by the end of the fourth week, and will consume during five or six month feeding period an average daily ration of 20 to 25 pounds silage, 16 to 20 pounds corn, and 2½ to 3 pounds cotton seed meal.

From the many recent inquiries received it is to be inferred that because of the shortage of other feeds this year, a number of cattle feeders are depending upon corn silage alone for fattening their cattle. Simply because silage contains some corn it is not a safe argument for making it take the place of the ordinary concentrates in the ration. Silage is a roughage and must be so considered. Its presence in the ration during the early part of the feeding period decreases the cost of gains during the latter part.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

Take "Pape's Diapiesin" and in Five Minutes You'll Wonder What Became of Misery in Stomach.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if you're gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, indigestion stomach; it's so unnecessary.

FAULTY DIGESTION

Quickly Shatters the Nervous System—Immediate Action Necessary—Use Mi-na.

When you feel irritable, tired and dependent; when you have nervous twitches, specks before the eyes, headaches, sour stomach, heartburn, bad taste in the mouth, and pains in the colon and bowels—you're suffering from indigestion the first step to chronic dyspepsia, which invariably wrecks the nervous system—you need Mi-na at once.

Mi-na is a specific for stomach weakness—it goes to the seat of your trouble and quickly ends stomach misery. It surely and safely builds up and strengthens the stomach walls and glands, quickly improves the digestive system—the vital force and nerve energy are restored, then you are in the best of spirits and enjoy perfect health.

Do not suffer another day. Get a fifty cent box of Mi-na Tablets from your nearest drug store—keep them with you constantly, for this treatment will help you get well and strong, and immediate relief is sure. Do not delay—delays are not only dangerous, but needless. If not benefited Mi-na costs nothing.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Homburger Brust Tee" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

Don't Hesitate! A Laxative is Necessary if Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad or Stomach Sour.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently goes out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.—Adv.

The Best Cough Medicine.
"We have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past month and consider it an indispensable. Its effect is almost instantaneous, and there is no use of talking, it is a dead shot on a cough or cold. We do not say this for pay but because we consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best made, and want the people to know it and use it."—Columbus Safeguard, Columbus Junction, Iowa. The above editorial appeared in the Columbus Safeguard almost forty years ago. At that time the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was confined to a few counties in Iowa. It now enjoys a world wide reputation and many thousands have testified to its excellence. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

PREACHED ANNUAL SERMON TO PYTHIANS

REV. W. E. SPOONTS HELD UP HIGH IDEALS FOR ORDER.

Service Very Largely Attended Although Day Was Stormy—Minister Made Plea for Each Knight to Learn the Glory of Self Conquering—Seven Reasons for Pythianism Given.

The annual sermon for Knights of Pythias was delivered Sunday morning at Northminster church by the pastor, Rev. Walter E. Spoonst, who is a loyal member of the order. Although the morning was so stormy there were 208 Pythians who attended the service and this number is said to be the largest on record. Dr. A. E. Morey, also a prominent Pythian assisted in the service and the choir rendered some special music. Miss Rinda Viera and Miss Virginia Baptist sang a duet in a pleasing manner.

The programs which had been printed for the day were of special design and will serve as appropriate souvenirs of the day. The Pythian emblem had a place on the title page and below were the words, "Welcome, Brother Knights." On the back page the pastor gave "Seven Reasons Why I Am a K. of P." These reasons:

Reasons for Pythianism.
Because it teaches me to love God, love and love my home, and to love my country.
Because it teaches me to practice that friendship which bound Pythias to Damon, and to help bring mankind into one grand brotherhood.

Because it teaches me charity, not only to the household of my faith, but to all humanity.

Because it teaches me to exemplify benevolence to my brothers in a way which exhibits true kindness and love.

Because it teaches me to preserve the sanctity of home, the protection of its members, the elevation of the standard of citizenship, and the uplifting of mankind.

Because it teaches me to respect the laws of my country, to be brave in defending the right, to keep my honor untarnished and to prevent, to the best of my ability, a personal act or word injurious to any one.

Because it teaches me to try to live that when I reach the river that marks the unknown shore, my hands will be filled with deeds of charity—the golden key that opens the palace of eternity.

The Spirit of Friendship.
Rev. Mr. Spoonst took as the text for his very excellent sermon Proverbs 16:32, "Better is he who ruleth his spirit than he who taketh a city." The closing paragraphs of the discourse are given herewith:

"Brother Knights, let us dedicate our lives to that spirit of friendship which the brotherly love which found its highest and best expression in the lives of Damon and Pythias; to that spirit of friendship which should abide with us each day, in the lodge room and out of the lodge room, in our business and social relations as well as in our fraternal activities; to that spirit of friendship which inspires us to lead nobler and manlier lives; which softens and illuminates our hearts with charity and benevolence towards each other, not only in dollars and cents, but in thought and deed; in that spirit which looks, not every man in his own things, but also on the things of his neighbor, and rejoices with those that weep, and to that spirit which not only in its avowed charities, but in its industries as well, in the factory as in the lodge room, in its acquisition as well as in its expenditure of money, seeks to promote the common good, to make this world a wiser, better and happier world.

"This service this morning is only a tiny atom in the world's stupendous activities, the merest ripple on the great sea of human life, yet may we not take courage to hope that the giving of our lives to friendship, charity and benevolence, in this city, may serve to bring us one step nearer to that world which I have faith to believe lies in the not far distant future, where men will help rather than smite, bind up rather than inflict wounds; be quick to recognize the good and not eager to find the evil; be patient of spirit with the weak, and rejoice in the triumph of mercy and truth.

In the New Earth.
"In that new earth will exist a fraternity that will embrace the world, that will acknowledge God as Father of all, and count every man a brother; that will bind itself in a vast conspiracy to cheer the fallen, to aid the weak, to scatter the sunshine of love and brotherly kindness over the world around, to make the highways of life bloom with the tender blossoms of service, blossoms whose fragrant perfume will brighten the path of every creature that passes this way upon life's journey.
"The noble manhood of that day will be a knight errant indeed, clad in the armor of truth, protected by the breast plate of righteousness and purity, and girded with the golden girdle of unselfish devotion to God and humanity.

"Tested in the crucible of eternal truth, having come through as gold refined in the fire, they shall enter purified and exalted into their divine inheritance as kings and priests unto God, through our Lord Jesus Christ who is our life.

"Brother Knights, as the astronomer takes the level of the sea to measure all important heights and depths, so must we take the plane upon which men move to measure the influence of their lives upon human kind. A giant glorified in the strength of his own great arm and was slain by the shepherd youth. Newton mounted the stars and saw the forces that bound all nature in harmony and system. In it he saw the hand of the Creator, and blessed mankind by his living. So let us mount up to our privilege and understand that 'Better is he that ruleth his spirit than he who taketh a city.'

mankind by his living. So let us mount up to our privilege and understand that 'Better is he that ruleth his spirit than he who taketh a city.'

Chivalry of Good Deeds.
"Brother Knights, I have seen part of a summer's sky overcast with cloud and the gentle showers fall and the rain-drops sparkle as so many diamonds on tree and shrub and flower, and I believed it beautiful. I have fancied myriad forms in the strange phenomena of the heavens, and believed it grand. I have looked on the mellow glow of sunset and believed it challenged the beautiful; but the most charming picture perhaps that may challenge the imagination is a shaft of light spanning from the heights of earth to heaven, and human souls, loosed from their mortal environment, ascending that shaft to the God who gave them.

"Now it has been left for us to glory in the fact of birth in a land dowered with knightly genius of thy patriotism and the peerless chivalry of thy deeds. Caesar nor Napoleon inspired their armed legions with such spirit for war as thou hast wrought thy countrymen for peace, nor waged such victories in battle as thou hast won for oppression, as thou hast arrayed for freedom, nor transmitted such glory to the nations as thy example to posterity."

"WITHIN THE LAW."

Bayard Veiller's smashing melodrama of modern conditions in New York City, "Within The Law," will be seen at the Grand Theatre on Friday, Feb. 27th, and the unusual opportunity will be offered theatregoers of seeing a great New York success while still at the height of the interest which it has aroused. For an entire season of twelve months, this play packed the Eltinge Theatre, New York City, receiving the most extraordinary praise, not only from the regular dramatic critics of the metropolis, but from prominent people, who have never before lent their names to the endorsement of any drama, including Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, Sheriff Julius Harburger of New York, and Police Commissioner Dougherty also of New York.

RICHEST BOY IN THE WORLD
NOW FOURTEEN YEARS OLD

John Nicholas Brown of Newport Has Fortune Estimated Anywhere from Twenty-five to Fifty Millions—Comes of Famous Eastern Family.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 23.—John Nicholas Brown, the "wealthiest boy in the world," entered upon his fifteenth year today. As an infant he was known as the "Ten Million Dollar Baby." Today his fortune is variously estimated at $25,000,000 to $50,000,000. Seven years hence when he attains his legal majority, he will come into possession of more millions than are now held in trust and will be numbered among the richest men in America.

Young Brown has spent practically the whole of his fourteen years in Newport, with the exception of occasional visits to Europe. His home in Harbour Court, on Halidon Hill, a large, old fashioned place that makes but a modest showing in comparison with the great mansions by which it is surrounded on all sides. Here the "richest boy" has grown up under the watchful eye of his mother, Mrs. John Nicholas Brown, whose life bugaboo has been the fear that her son might be kidnapped and held for ransom. The boy has never been allowed to go about alone. As an infant he was accompanied everywhere by a nurse and private detective. Since he has grown older he has been allowed a little more freedom, but even now he is seldom seen without a "companion," whose broad shoulders and muscular frame afford outward evidence that the owner is well qualified to teach his young charge the many art of self defense.

Called the Baby Croesus.

John Nicholas Brown first came into the limelight as a Baby Croesus when his father, of the same name, died in 1900, only a few months after the birth of his son, to whom he left his estate of $2,000,000. About a week after the death of his father the infant inherited also the estate of his uncle, Harold Brown, value at an equal amount. To these millions other inheritances were added from time to time. When the boy's grandmother, Mrs. Sophia Augusta Brown, died in 1909 she left an estate value at about $30,000,000, large share of which went to swell the fortune of young John Nicholas.

The boy's mother was formerly Mrs. Natalie Dresser, a sister of Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt. The Browns descend from one of the oldest Rhode Island families, tracing back to the Rev. Chad. Brown, who came to America in 1638, shortly after Roger Williams. For over a century the Browns were connected with the shipping firm of Brown and Ives, in which they built up a large cotton and textile industry and carried on extensive trade with the East Indies.

Comes of Famous Family

One of the most famous members of the family was Nicholas Brown, the great grandfather of young John Nicholas Brown. In his honor, in 1804, Rhode Island college changed its name to Brown university. Nicholas Brown was officially connected with the university for over fifty years, and gave in all not less than $100,000 to the institution. His benevolence was not confined to the university, however, for he devoted large sums to the building of churches and to charitable purposes, and bequeathed $30,000 for an insane asylum in Providence.

His son, John Carter Brown, succeeded to his father's business. He was graduated from Brown university in 1816, and in the course of his life gave in money value to the institution then more than his father had done. He died in middle life, leaving a widow and two sons, John Nicholas Brown and Harold Brown, the father and uncle, respectively, of young John Nicholas Brown.

TWO FIRE CALLS.

Sunday afternoon a fire in the home of Dr. W. P. Duncan caused the residents near by to think there was a fire and the department was called but their services were not needed.

Early yesterday morning, somewhere about six a fire burned out at the residence of D. M. Howe, 485 East State street. The department responded to this call also.

MORTUARY

Eppinger.

Miss Lillian Rosenthal with J. Herman received a dispatch announcing the death of Mrs. Wm. Eppinger who died Sunday afternoon at her home in Cincinnati. She had been afflicted with paralysis and lost her husband from the same cause a year or more ago. She was a highly estimable lady and much beloved by all who knew her. She leaves three daughters and one son.

For a long time after her husband's death her mental condition was such that her physician instructed the family not let her know the sad affliction which had befallen her and she was told that he was sick up stairs and couldn't get down to her and she couldn't get up to see him. Friends would call at the house to see her and then ascend the stairs to maintain the deception.

Alberding.

George Alberding, aged 74 years, died at his residence on Pennsylvania avenue Monday afternoon at 12:50 o'clock. Although he had been in failing health for the past four months, Mr. Alberding's condition had been critical only for the past week or ten days.

The deceased was born in Amsterdam, Holland and came to America in 1845. He had resided near Jacksonville for the past thirty-five years and before coming to this community he was married to Miss Ellen Munson, who survives him. He is also survived by one daughter, Mr. Joseph A. Waters, who resides with her mother; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. W. L. Dorgan. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Andrews.

Cyrus C. Andrews, succumbed to an attack of heart failure at his home, 549 South Diamond street, at 11:30 o'clock Sunday night. Mr. Andrews was taken ill a week ago Friday with heart trouble but since that time was able to be up and about the house. He was suddenly taken worse Sunday and medical aid availed nothing.

He was the son of Emanuel C. and Mrs. C. Andrews and was born in Jacksonville, June 6, 1868, being at the time of his death 46 years of age. He received his education in the public schools here and has practically spent his entire life in this city except for three years when he was employed by the Sturgeon Supply Company of Kansas City. At one time he was a member of the produce company of C. C. Andrews and Bro., the store being conducted on West State street for a number of years. He had also been in the employ of W. A. Jenkinson and Co., Miller Bros., W. J. Moore Produce Company, E. C. Lambert. For five years he was manager of the White Market which handled fruits and vegetables and this position he held until Mr. White's death. For the past few years he had been associated with his father in the decorating and painting business under the firm name, E. C. Andrews and Son.

Mr. Andrews on account of his pleasant ways had a great many friends. He was of kind heart, industrious and of good character. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of which Dr. Golver was then pastor, having joined at the age of 11 years. He was also a member of the Modern Woodmen. His sudden death comes as a great shock to his relatives and friends and the family will have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. He was married Feb. 20, 1913, to Miss Sada Hurst, daughter of W. S. Hurst of Virginia, Ill. It was only last Christmas that Mrs. Andrews lost her mother. Besides his wife and parents, he leaves one brother Clarence E. Andrews of Peoria.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, 549 South Diamond street, in charge of Rev. Howard D. French and interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Bassett.

Miss Cassie Bassett died Sunday evening at 11 o'clock at the home of her mother, 319 East Washington street, at the age of 39 years. She had been confined to her bed for a month. Besides her mother, Mrs. Lydia Bassett, she leaves one brother Mrs. Oscar Bassett, four sisters, Mrs. Carrie Williams of Enterprise, La., Mrs. O. Hyatt, Mrs. Hattie Morrison, Mrs. Leona Williams, of this city and six nieces, Russell Goode, Mrs. Ethel Jones, Lucille, Helen, George and Russell Williams of Jacksonville.

The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the McCabe M. E. church, in charge of Rev. A. E. Miller. Interment will be made in Jacksonville cemetery.

Spire.

Mrs. Margaret R. Spire, died at six o'clock Sunday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Abe Seymour in the vicinity of Franklin. She had been in failing health for some time and death was a welcome relief from the suffering for she was ready to go. Her immediate sickness lasted but two weeks.

Mrs. Spire was the daughter of Martin and Sallie Reed and was born in Grundy county, Tenn., Dec. 15, 1827. The family moved to this county in 1830 and settled in Providence vicinity, five miles southeast of Franklin where they resided for many years.

Feb. 22, 1844 she was married to William Thompson Spire who died Jan. 18, 1900 and consequently she passed away on the seventieth anniversary of her marriage.

She was the mother of eleven children, two of whom are dead. They are: John M., and George W. Spire. The living children are W. T. Spire, Mrs. Sarah Seymour, Mrs. Martha Story, Mrs. Mary Whitlock, Mrs. Julia Whitlock, Mrs. Matilda Roberts, all of this county; Mrs. Margaret Cline of Danville, Kansas; Mrs. Emma Smith and Mrs. Matilda Morrow of Texas; also 19 grandchildren, seven great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild.

In 1859 Mrs. Spire united with the Baptist church of Youngblood Prairie and when she became a resident of Franklin she changed her membership to the Baptist church in that place. She was truly a consistent christian, devoted to her church, her family and her Maker. She was kind in her family, a devoted mother and a faithful friend. She was beloved and respected by all who knew her and loved truly by her own. Her daughter, Mrs. Seymour, was dutiful at all times and ready to do everything in her power for her aged parent who loved her in return.

The funeral was to be conducted this morning in the Methodist church in Franklin but owing to the storm it has been indefinitely postponed.

Free this week, an $8.50 set of ware with every Great Majestic range sold this week. Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie.

"THE GIRL OF MY DREAMS"

"The Girl of My Dreams" the pretty musical play which is booked for Thursday night at the Grand is a sweet and simple little love story full of the charm of love and of the glory which love throws over life, as the morning sun bathes the old earth with hope and joy. It is not profound. It is not a puzzle in plot and in ethics any more than the life of any of us is a puzzle. It is as simple and plain and true as love. That in a musical comedy one should select a little bunch of pure sweetness for a heroine is no crime and that the city chap tired of bachelorhood should forswear it on her account is nothing to be wondered at as the play advances and unfolds. Here is something new—new in its aim, new in its aspirations. "The Girl of My Dreams" charms because of the plot, or near as can be in a musical comedy is true to life. It matters not how much he laughs over the grotesque comedy of the situations or taps his feet in unison with the tempo of the charming music—he is bound to admit at the final drop, that the girl of his dreams (or should be) in heart pretty much "The Girl of My Dreams."

MRS. ROBERT RIED OF MURRAYVILLE DIES AT AGE OF NINETY YEARS

Mother of Dr. David H. Reid Passes Away After Short Illness—Was Born in Scotland Near Home of Robert Burns.

Mrs. Robert Reid, mother of Dr. David H. and J. H. Reid of this city, passed away Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home in Murrayville, aged 90 years. Although for several years she had not been in the best of health, she was seriously ill but a short time before her death. Dr. Reid, her son, left for Murrayville by way of Springfield Monday evening.

Margaret Currie was born Dec. 29, 1823, at Catrine, Ayrshire, in Scotland. She was married to Robert Reid and remained in her native country until about the age of thirty. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Reid was in the native country of Robert Burns, and the poetry of the Scottish bard was the especial delight of Mr. Reid who knew a great deal of it and could repeat whole poems by heart. So long as he lived he was fond of recalling Burns as he knew him at his home in Ayrshire. Mr. Reid preceded his wife in death ten years, passing away Sept. 6, 1904.

Accompanied by her husband and two eldest children, Mrs. Reid came to America about sixty years ago. They resided in Yonkers, N. Y., until 1867 when they removed to Morgan county. Early in life the deceased united with the Scottish Presbyterian church but joined the Methodist church when she came to this country. She was at all times a devout and consistent Christian and was held in the highest respect by her family, neighbors and friends.

Mrs. Reid is survived by five sons and two daughters. The sons are Robert Reid of Hoxie, Kans., James of Edgar, Neb., Andrew of Murrayville, Dr. David H. Reid and J. H. Reid of this city. The daughters, Miss Janet Reid, who lived with her mother, and Mrs. George Stansfield, also of Murrayville. She had also, twelve grand children and five great grand children.

Announcements for the funeral will be made later.

Jacksonville Lodge No. 570 and Harmony Lodge No. 3 A. F. and A. M. will hold a school of instruction, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Meetings at 9 a. m., 1:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. each day. Work each evening. All Masons cordially invited to attend.

ANIMAL WEIGHING SIXTY POUNDS BAGGED BY HUNTERS

Nimrods From New Berlin Kill Wolf After Hunt of Many Hours—Eight Men and Pack of Twenty Hounds in Chase.

New Berlin hunters bagged their third wolf Saturday, when a large gray one, weighing sixty pounds, was killed on the farm of Robert Scott, four and one-half miles northeast of Pleasant Plains.

The capture of the wolf was the result of a chase which continued from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The animal, wounded by several shots fired on by the pursuing hunters, was finally overtaken by a pack of twenty hounds and killed. The pelt, which is valuable, will be preserved by the members of the wolf hunters' club.

The advance guard of the club started out in a search of the wolf when they received a report that one of the animals, which had been taking sheep, was seen on the farm of William Owens, two and one-half miles north of Berlin. Eight members rounded up twenty hounds and started for the scene. The tracks were traced in the snow and in a short time the animal was located. A volley of shots went wild and the wolf resumed its flight. After a chase of ten miles, the animal was again overtaken and was wounded. It managed to continue its flight to the farm of Robert Scott, where it was overtaken by the dogs and killed.

A number of wolves have been discovered in the vicinity of New Berlin during the last year, and two other animals have been killed. The members of the party who pursued the wolf are:

Dennis Simpson, William Owens, William Wake, Thomas Taylor, J. W. Foutch, George Bergsneider, Henry McLaughlin and P. Elliott.

The carcass of the wolf was returned to New Berlin and was seen by a large number of residents of the village.
